

RISING STAR AWARDS

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Royal College
of Nursing
London

Celebrating the contribution of London's Black, Asian and minoritised ethnic nursing community to health and social care in the capital.

Nominate a Rising Star today

You can nominate an RCN London member who:

- is from a Black, Asian, and minoritised ethnic community
- works in London
- works in a nursing role across bands 2-7, or role equivalent, or is a nursing/midwifery student
- can be employed inside or outside the NHS including through an agency, in general practice or in the independent sector
- has not previously been the recipient of a Rising Star award

Scan QR code for application form, including eligibility criteria

Submit your nominations by 23.59 on Tuesday 9 July

Nominate NOW!

Please note your nominee
MUST be a member of the RCN